

NCCADV

North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence

Domestic Violence Basics

Develop shared understanding of the dynamics of domestic violence.

Develop and increase understanding of the empowerment advocacy model

Increase knowledge of how trauma operates in DV and increase trauma-informed skills

Learn and practice active listening and crisis intervention skills

Learn and practice safety planning and risk assessment

Recently revamped with feedback from our members and past participants, Domestic Violence Basics is NCCADV's introductory training intended for new advocates, and those that feel they need a refresher. This is a two-day training and is designed to build skills and competencies around the dynamics and impact of domestic violence, as well as best practices in serving survivors. Additional topics include trauma, the empowerment model of advocacy, confidentiality, active listening, crisis intervention skills, and assessing risk and safety planning.
